

Hall of Heroes Information Book

	Applications	Strategies	Conventions
4	Biography tells about the life of the Hero in great detail and clearly explains what makes them a hero.	Sentences are clear and well written. Advanced vocabulary is used and writing captures the reader. Ideas are focused and grouped together.	Paragraphs and sentences are neat and formatted correctly.  There are few, if any spelling, grammar, or punctuation mistakes.
3	Biography tells about the life of the hero and explains why they are a hero.	Sentences are clear and well written. Ideas are grouped together.	Sentences are formatted correctly. There may be a few spelling, grammar, or punctuation mistakes.
2	Biography explains the life of the hero. It does not mention why they are a hero	Sentences are vague and may not make sense.  Ideas are jumbled and the writing lacks flow.	Sentences have spelling, punctuation, and grammatical mistakes, but can still be read.
1	Biography does not explain the life of the hero or why they are a hero.	Sentences are unfocused and do not make sense.	Sentences are not spelled or formatted correctly. It is very difficult to read.